SAEDA

Subversion And Espionage Directed against the Army

26th Area Support Group

AR 381-12

Unclassified

PURPOSE

The purpose of this briefing is to inform the members of the 26th Area Support Group of the definition and aspects of SAEDA, as well as what you should do if you encounter a SAEDA situation

OUTLINE

- Definition
- Areas of Interest
- SAEDA Examples
- Actions
- Summary
- Conclusion

DEFINITIONS

SUBVERSION: (Subvert) 1. To overthrow or destroy. (something established) 2. To undermine or corrupt, as in morals

Actively encouraging military or civilian personnel to violate laws, disobey orders or regulations, or disrupt activities, with the intent to interfere, impair the loyalty, morale or discipline of the armed forces.

DEFINITIONS

ESPIONAGE: 1. The act of spying. 2. The use of spies to learn the military secrets of other nations.

Obtaining, delivering, transmitting, communicating, or receiving information (Regardless of Classification), about national defense with an intent or reason to believe that the information may be used to injure the United States or be advantageous to any foreign nation.

AREAS of INTEREST

- Technology
- Troop strength
- Force reduction
- War mission
- Equipment, especially weapons and ammunitions
- Security measures

Unclassified

EXAMPLES

- Known, suspected, or contemplated acts of espionage.
- Known, suspect, or contemplated diversion or attempted

  diversion of U.S. technology to a foreign country.
- Known or suspected acts of treason by Army personnel.
- Active attempts to encourage military or civilian employees to commit subversion.

Unclassified

EXAMPLES

- Known, suspected, or attempted intrusions into classified automated systems by authorized users. (Hacking)

- Contact with a citizen or official of a foreign country who show excessive knowledge or undue interest about:

    1. The person or their duties.

    2. U.S. Technology, research, testing, developing or evaluation efforts

    3. Weapons systems or technology

EXAMPLES

OR who attempts to:

1. Obtain classified information.

2. Place the person under obligation through special treatment, favors, gifts or other means.

3. Establish any business relationship outside official

channels

EXAMPLES

Incidents while traveling in foreign countries are:

1. Questions about your duties.

2. Requests for military information.

3. Coercion to cooperate with foreign officials.

4. Offers of unusual assistance to inaccessible areas.

5. Contact by foreign governments or intelligence agencies

EXAMPLES

(Guard Specific)

- Persons wanting detailed information about what amounts and types of weapons and equipment we store in our Armory.
- Persons wanting detailed information about work schedules of our full-time personnel or our drill schedule.
- Persons wanting detailed information about our security systems.

EXAMPLES

(Guard Specific)

- Persons wanting detailed information about the issue, turn-in, handling, accounting for, storage, use, or destruction of excess ammunition and propellant.

- Persons wanting list of names, addresses, phone numbers or other personal information of unit members

ACTIONS

-Know who you are talking to!

-Watch what you say!

-Remain non-committal

ACTIONS

-If you encounter a SAEDA action:

- Remember everything

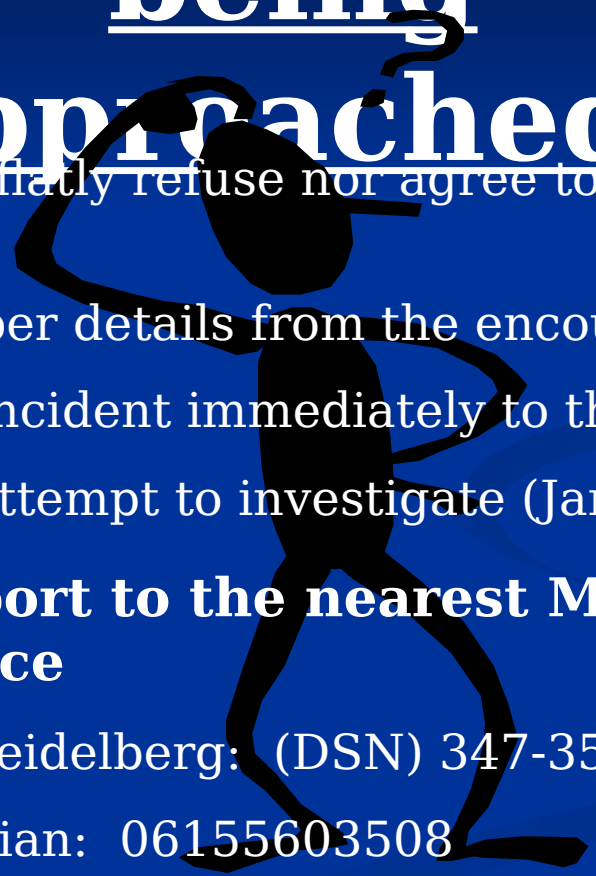
- Do not probe or play spy catcher

- Report action

SUMMARY

- Information is power
- Report
- Everything is important

What to do after being approached?



Neither flatly refuse nor agree to what is asked

Remember details from the encounter

Report incident immediately to the M.I.s

Do not attempt to investigate (James Bond method)

Report to the nearest MI Office

In Heidelberg: (DSN) 347-3508

Civilian: 06155603508

66th MI Det

Unclassified

CONCLUSION

It is only the enlightened ruler and the wise general who will use the highest intelligence of the army for the purposes of spying, and thereby they achieve great results.

Sun Tzu

It’s easy to forget what intelligence consists of: luck and speculation. Here and there a windfall, here and there a scoop.

John Le Carré

Unclassified

Finished!

- Congratulations! You have completed the training. You need to complete one more step in order to receive credit. Click on the link below, fill out the questionnaire and click the submit button.

- Receive credit reply to
  - 26asgtraining@26asg.heidelberg.army.mil